Lockers in Schedule 1 are a cleaner and more efficient upgrade over beds, but they're locked to the beta branch for now. Grab them from Dan's Hardware once you've updated, and ...

The benefits of using lockers over beds is the fact that lockers take up less space and the locker has more storage. If you prefer, you can still use strictly beds, or mix them with...

I had same problem. But you need to assign them a locker instead. They are also purchased at the hardware store. And you then put their cash in the locker. Good luck! :-)

For compatibility reasons, employees will still be assigned to beds in existing saves, but going forward, you can use lockers instead, which are more space-efficient and can store more stuff.

In this guide, we'll explore how you can get Lockers in Schedule 1 and how you can assign them to employees instead of beds.

Locker is an alternative to beds for supplying salary to workers. It has 6 slots (a total of $6000 can be stored), and is only take 1x3 space, making it much more preferable to beds.

Now, in its open beta, Schedule 1 will no longer require employees to be registered to beds. Instead, you'll be able to place a locker, which has a much smaller footprint, and removes the...

In this article, we're going over how you should handle your workers. Find out if you should use beds or lockers for them!

In Schedule 1's 0.3.6 update, Tyler has replaced beds with lockers to make management more distinct. To get your employees to start working, you'll have to assign lockers to them, and ...

BRAND NEW BETA UPDATE - In this tutorial I show you step by step how to replace beds with the new
