

Title: Electricity bills vientiane

Generated on: 2026-05-29 06:09:48

Copyright (C) 2026 SWB POWER & SOLAR. All rights reserved.

For the latest updates and more information, visit our website: <https://www.swbsports.co.za>

-----

The Lao government has announced plans to renegotiate electricity purchasing agreements with hydropower companies in response to growing public anger over rising power bills.

In February, the Vientiane government announced a gradual hike in electricity rates through to 2029. The plan includes incremental increases in 2025 and 2026, with household rates projected to hit ...

According to a plan obtained by the Vientiane Times, EDL is preparing to renegotiate its contracts with power producers in the hope of securing lower purchasing prices, with the aim of ...

The Vientiane government's recent announcement of incremental rate hikes through 2029 has sparked widespread concern, as citizens grapple with bills that have surged by nearly 50% ...

Some business owners in Vientiane province's Thoulakhom district received monthly bills as high as US$4,000 from the state-run Electricite du Laos, or EDL. That's 10 times the usual ...

Vientiane residents have expressed their dissatisfaction with the high electricity bills for April, May and June, despite a 3% discount on electricity tariffs to residential consumers in these ...

VIENTIANE (Laotian Times): The Lao government has announced plans to renegotiate electricity purchasing agreements with hydropower companies in response to growing public anger ...

EDL ramps up reforms to tackle debt, reduce electricity costs &#201;lectricit&#233; du Laos (EDL) has stepped up organisational reform, debt restructuring, and energy price negotiation, aiming to ease financial ...

The dramatic rise in electricity bills has sparked public complaints, with this concern dominating debate during the recent 9th Ordinary Session of the National Assembly.

A 42-year-old resident of Thongsanang village in central Vientiane, nicknamed To, was upset after receiving an electricity bill in May that was almost twice as high as normal.

Electricity bills vientiane

Web: <https://www.swbsports.co.za>

